

A SWOT analysis considers Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats and is a simple and effective way of examining your own capabilities and assists you to identify areas for improvement. It is a method of reflection which helps to explore your behaviours and motivations in detail and highlights areas which are often not obvious to you. Consider each of the following prompts and complete each of the quadrants in the SWOT analysis below.

S.W.O.T.: Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats

Strengths are your positive attributes and resources which enhance your ability to mentor someone.	Weaknesses are aspects you feel you need to improve upon or skills you lack, aspects which you feel detract from your ability to be a good mentor.
Opportunities are the resources and opportunities you have around you which you might be able to access and which support you in the role.	Threats are the pressures and practicalities and other aspects of your role and responsibilities which might get in the way and hamper your ability to be a good mentor.
